Program Note

Am I Right?? is a comedy radio program airing on CJSW, in Calgary, Alberta. On the air since 2007 and podcasting since 2009, the program hosts comedians from Calgary, Canada and all over North America. The attached clip is an excerpt from the program's 2011 Year in Review episode, which presented two minutes clips of our favourite interviews of the year – as well as a "Santa tracker," which continually reported his sleigh being in the North Pole. Which makes sense, as it first aired December 21, 2011.

The typical episode of Am I Right?? features long form interviews – sometimes they're played fairly straight, sometimes they're gag-heavy, AND when the show's at it's best, it sounds like it imploding. BUT, that's all part of the joke. This clip showcases each of these three modes of Am I Right?? - community radio's BEST PODCAST.
