“It is Time of Women” (Tiempo de Mujeres) is a program that is born for the need to show the problems of the ethnic minority women, being Canada a multicultural country we consider important that community radio stations includes programs that allow us to observe how the women are in other countries, since women we are a vulnerable group in the society, it does not matter in that part of the world we are always there will be some type of vulnerability that affects us, this one space is to join the effort, to learn of the causes of diverse women, rural, Nobel Prizes, activists, feminists, housewives, mothers, etc .., but also to speak about specialists in topics that are necessary as the health

The Program “It is Time of Women” splits into 3 parts, the intro, which is a brief analysis of the topics that contains the program, the brief news that emphasize the most important thing happened in the week in topic of gender, and 3 Topics that can be related or with diverse topics, mixed with regional music of women. The program it is broadcasted every Saturday from 8:00 to 9:00 pm on CFRU 93.3 FM at the University of Guelph

The audio Attached is part of the coverage of Women’s World Conference 2011 in Ottawa.
