

Biography

Dave Booth owns a huge collection of music from the 1950s to the present (over 130,000 tracks). He has managed pop groups, been a professional DJ and broadcast live on several Toronto-area radio stations. In addition to Rock 'n Roll, Dave has a keen interest in Blues and Soul music.

Program

Dave's Jukebox is the most popular program on WhiStle Radio. It is a three-hour "Oldies Rock 'n Roll" show, broadcast on Saturdays at 1pm, repeated on Wednesday afternoons. The show is recorded at WhiStle studios in Stouffville. Dave Booth's encyclopedic knowledge of the music he plays is reinforced with extensive research undertaken for each show. He is very enthusiastic and has a passion for the radio and the music industry. He was also known as "Daddy Cool" in the late 1970s on CFNY 102.1, Toronto. Every show is produced with an exquisite amount of background history about each song. His repertoire features the best from the 1950s to the modern era. Dave's Jukebox has been playing on WhiStle Radio for five consecutive years. The town of Stouffville looks forward to hearing the old melodies every week along with Dave's charming on air personality, he has it all and that's why Stouffville loves him.
